Everyday Writing
Grades K-3

Thursday, September 24th
8:00am - 3:00pm

Continental Breakfast, Lunch, & Parking Provided

Writing is an essential component of every comprehensive literacy program. In this workshop, participants will learn how to engage young students in a variety of writing strategies designed to support each step of the writing process -- from planning to publication.

This session will introduce the structure and essential elements of Writer’s Workshop, use mentor texts for writing inspiration, and incorporate research-based strategies to teach writing to all students.
